

Millennium Docs Pilot 2019: Bayer Oy Turku

Bayer is a global enterprise with core competencies in the fields of health care and agriculture. As an innovation company, it sets trends in research-intensive areas. Bayer's products and services are designed to benefit people and improve their quality of life. Finland is a base for global pharmaceutical production, research & development and worldwide clinical trials. In Finland, Bayer employs about 850 people, located in Espoo and Turku. At Bayer, you have the opportunity to be part of a culture where we value the passion of our employees to innovate and give them the power to change.

Task

Outline environmental aspects of polymer-based drug development and manufacturing - current state and future aspects

Task description

Your task is to

- benchmark the current state of environmental aspects in pharmaceutical industry
- explore the gaps between the current and the targeted future state
- formulate an action plan to reach the future state
- prepare and present a roll-out plan

Expectations for the applicant

- Experience in industrial processes as well as knowledge on environmental technology is an advantage
- Motivated, interested and enthusiastic about environmental matters
- Ability to think comprehensively
- Ability for cross-disciplinary approach
- Good communication skills
- In your studies or internships, you may have acquired knowledge such as (not necessary)
  - drug development
  - production technology
  - sustainable development

Working period information

- Salary: 2800 €/month
- Duration: 3 months
- Starting date: 1.9.2019
- Working time: 38 h /week

Address: Pansiontie 47, 20101 Turku

Further information: Pirjo Korteso, phone 0400701057, email pirjo.korteso@bayer.com